GRAND CRU CLASSÉ EN 1855

The 2024 vintage promises to be a remarkable year, combining finesse, balance and aromatic brilliance. After a mild winter, spring brought early and uniform flowering, heralding excellent quality potential. A few storms in early summer ensured good water reserves, followed by a hot, dry August that was conducive to gradual, uniform ripening of the berries. The alternation of sunny days and cool nights in August and September helped preserve acidity and develop beautiful aromatic complexity. The harvest, from 23 September to 7 October, took place in excellent conditions, with the grapes reaching perfect ripeness. Thanks to rigorous selection in the vineyard, 2024 promises to be a brilliant vintage, with each grape variety expressing its full potential.

100 years in a bottle, and tomorrow...?

In 1924, Château Dauzac became the first Grand Cru Classé to bottle its wine at the estate, driven by the initiative of Nathaniel Johnston. That same year, the iconic imperial yellow label was created, a symbol of light and prestige. Today, it has become a recognizable emblem of Château Dauzac.

Château Dauzac celebrates 100 years of bottling on the estate, a symbol of high standards and loyalty to an exceptional terroir. This anniversary vintage pays tribute to a long tradition of authentic, masterfully crafted wines, embodying the boldness, precision and refinement that have always characterised Dauzac's pioneering spirit.
